Key Features:

Cliff Wenn is the Director of Squash at the Maugus Club in Wellesley, MA where he has been the pro for the past 20 years. A Malaysian-American, Cliff learned the game in Singapore and Malaysia from several of the region's top coaches and players. He brings his 30 years of worldwide squash experience to the Junior Squash Camps held at the beautiful 5 court squash facility at Winsor School in Boston, MA. The courts are housed within the new Lubin O'Donnell Center for Performing Arts, Athletics, & Wellness. Many of Cliff's juniors are state and nationally ranked &/or on the varsity team at their respective schools. Cliff is a certified Level 3 coach by the World Professional Squash Association and on the Head Squash Advisory Staff. Szilvia Szombati, is in her 13th year as Head Coach at the Winsor School. A former member of the Hungarian national squash team, Szilvi regularly plays for Boston's A team in the Howe Cup and competes in the MA State 5.0 Open Squash League. She is also an accomplished badminton player, a former member of the Hungarian National Badminton Team, and a US National Champion in Mixed Doubles. Szilvi is the only athlete in Hungarian sports history to have represented the country in two different racket sports.

The camps are specifically geared toward beginner/intermediate level players.

All basic fundamental aspects of the game will be covered during the week, including: grip, strokes, stance, footwork, tactics, strategy, rules, and match play. Specialized exercises, drills, and games will be used to work on each fundamental area of the game. Snacks and beverages provided for all campers.

There will also be raffle and competition based prizes for those who qualify. The Winsor School is located in the Longwood Medical area near Fenway Park in Boston.

Space in each camp is limited to 24 campers.

Half Day Camps run from 9am-1pm - Tuition is $550.00
